

Dr. N. Murugan,
MBBS, MRCPI, FRCP [G],
Hepatology fellowship (USA)
Senior Consultant
Hepatologist & Liver Transplant Physician

Qualifications

MBBS	1985	Madras Medical College
MRCP	1992	Royal college of Physicians Ireland
Hepatology Fellowship	1999	USA
FRCP	2005	Royal College of Physicians, Glasgow, UK

Dr.N.Murugan is presently a Senior Consultant Hepatologist & Transplant Physician, Apollo Hospitals, Chennai, India.

He completed his M.B.B.S from Madras Medical College, and subsequently underwent post graduate general medicine and specialist Gastro training in UK and Ireland. He has obtained MRCP degree from Ireland and later FRCP from Glasgow. During this time he had already developed an interest and expertise in the treatment of liver diseases.

Later he completed a one year Fellowship Programme in Hepatology & Liver Transplantation at the Alton Ochsner Medical Foundation, New Orleans, USA, and attachments at the Liver Institute at Pittsburgh USA and Kings College Hospital London.

He has been practicing in India for the past 11 years as a Consultant, and working predominantly as a Hepatologist. He is very experienced in managing all types of liver disorders including the management of viral hepatitis, end stage liver disease and medical management of liver transplantation.