

Dr. Bhuvaneshwari Shankar is the Vice President (Dietetics) and Group Chief Dietitian for the Apollo Hospitals Group which has 54 hospitals. She has 32 years of Experience as a Dietitian.

She has been with the Apollo Hospitals for the last 30 years and has been instrumental in raising the Clinical Nutrition standards of the Apollo Hospitals to an appreciably high level of patient rating.

Dr. Bhuvaneshwari holds a PhD in Clinical Nutrition, with a specialization in Critical Care Nutrition. She is an Examiner for various Universities, member, Board of Studies - Nutrition, Madras University and has received a Lifetime Achievement Award from the JBAS College, Chennai. She is an Expert Committee Member, Nutrition Board- Government of India. She has presented papers at various national and international forums. She is constantly exposed to clinical nutrition practices across the globe.

She has quite a few research papers released in national and International journals on Clinical Nutrition.

She has released Apollo Clinical Nutrition Manual for adults and Pediatrics, a step toward raising the caliber of Clinical Nutrition across the Group. She has also released Dietitians Pocket Books on Basics of Clinical Nutrition for Adults, Pediatrics and Transplant Nutrition.

She is the only dietitian from Asia who is accredited to be the teacher for European Diploma in Clinical Nutrition conducted by the ESPEN. She has presented many papers in national and International Conferences. To add to her credentials, she was instrumental in getting the “Best Of Best” Award for the critical care practices of Apollo Hospitals Chennai by participating in an International Nutrition Survey where 183 hospitals across the Globe participated. She was invited for the Singapore Health Care Summit to deliver a lecture on “Striving towards Excellence in Clinical Nutrition practices in Apollo Hospitals Group” in June 2013. She was invited for the Singapore Health Care Summit in June 2014, to be a Chairman for the event and deliver a talk on “Nutrient and Drug Interactions” and was also a Panelist. Was an invited Speaker by the Critical Care Society of Srilanka to deliver a lecture on “Latest Trends in Critical Care Nutrition” in April 2014.